HOLIDAYS

Site Terms

We hope you all enjoy staying at Little Treamble Holidays, to aid this we ask you all to please remain courteous to those around you particularly in terms of noise, how you pitch, park and how you leave the facilities. Please report any concerns to a staff member as soon as possible. Please note:

- A quiet policy is in place across the site from 22.00 – 8.00am
- Touring pitch departure time is 11am, check in time is 12.30, due to the narrow road access no waiting area is available prior to this.
- Dogs are very welcome on our site however, they MUST be kept on leads / tethered at all times, without exception. Dogs are not permitted to be exercised on site, note Elderflower is not a dog walking field. Dogs are not permitted in the toilets / showers.
- As our water is metered please ensure all connections are tightened and leak free, caravan washing is only permitted with a bucket, not a hose.
- Breathable groundsheet permitted for stays of less than 21 days
- Only one car permitted per pitch to be parked within pitch parameters, extra vehicles and visitors must be parked in visitors parking.
- Extra tents, gazebos etc must be pre-booked and will be allowed at the management's discretion (pitch size permitting), extra costs will apply
- Large waste bins are for day to day rubbish only, no large packaging (i.e. from new chairs etc), or unwanted items permitted. The waste recycling centre is as Trevenon Road, TR7 3BW.
- We are a family and couples site only, no groups are permitted
- 5mph speed limit must be observed throughout our site
- Barbecues only permitted if raised off the ground, please ask if you require bricks. Take care not to light too close to awnings / caravans / tents
- Proprietors reserve the right to refuse admission at any time
- The management cannot accept responsibility for any personal injury, damage or loss to any property including vehicles
- We recommend you take out travel insurance to protect you against any cancellation you may have to make, refunds will not be given under any circumstances
- By staying at Little Treamble Holidays you agree to adhere to the above terms, any guest or visitor failing to comply with any of the above conditions may be asked to leave the site.
- Please be considerate and courteous to all staff and other guests, abuse will not be tolerated and will result in you being ejected from the site without a refund
- Please raise any concerns with the management asap. Emergency contact 07780 662401
